Section 5.5:

The Managing Trustee:

Trustees shall nominate and elect the Managing Trustee from within the group of Board of Trustees to oversee BSOGA for a 4 year term.

Section 5.6:

Resignation & Vacancies of Managing Trustee:

Resignation of Managing Trustee should result in the election of new Managing Trustee from within the existing members of the board of Trustees. Trustee's vacant position for the remaining term will be filled by an election at the next General Body Meeting

Section 5.7:

Meetings of Board of Trustees:

The Board of Trustees shall hold at a minimum of one trustee meeting once a calendar year to ensure the BSOGA Constitution and By-Laws are being adhered to by the current Executive Committee.

(A): Managing Trustee can call a meeting at any time with ample notice to other trustees. Any trustee can ask for a Board of Trustees meeting by requesting the managing Trustee to hold such a meeting with written justification, who shall review the need for such a meeting and arrange it accordingly if necessary. However, if a majority of the Board of Trustees requests a meeting, the meeting must be scheduled and take place.

(B): Board of Trustee and Executive Committee members will meet at least 30 days prior to the General Body meeting to prepare such items such as the agenda and Annual Report items that will be presented during the Annual General Body meeting

Section 5.8:

Roles and Responsibilities of Board of Trustees:

1. The Board of Trustees is authorized and responsible to ensure BSOGA Constitution and By-Laws are properly adhered to by the Executive Committee and the general membership. The Board of Trustees will also play an advisory role to the Executive Committee.

2. The Board of Trustees shall coordinate and communicate with all the Brahmin Samajs of USA and Overseas to establish and expand the Brahmin network for the benefits of our community. This can be done in coordination with the Executive Committee. Both units will work to cultivate, enhance, and strengthen the relationship of BSOGA with other Brahmin organizations.
3. The Board of Trustees will oversee the endowment funds of BSOGA. The Board of Trustees will make available an operating bank account to the Executive Committee with seed/start-up funds of $7,500 to launch BSOGA programs during its 2 year term. In the event the funds are depleted prior to the end of the two year term, then the executive committee can ask for additional funding upon presenting a financial plan and or budget for future events to the Board of Trustees.

- Position of Joint Secretary (*) may be filled upon request by nomination by the Executive Committee. The position of Joint Secretary is not an open position for members to contest for as an individual position. It must be part of a collective team seeking election to various executive positions in BSOGA. For example, four people would like to seek nominations for all four executive committee positions as a slate of candidates, and would like to include a joint secretary member, and thus will include a nomination for that position with their slate of candidates.
- Member must meet eligibility requirements as stated in Section 6.3 of Article 6.

Section 6.5:

Term of Executive Committee Positions:

The Executive Committee's term shall be for two (2) years. Any Executive Committee member can hold a position for a maximum of 2 consecutive terms. Executive Committee member must have a two year gap following two consecutive terms to be eligible to run for another executive position.

Two year term begins upon election of executive committee and will terminate at the end of the two year term following election cycle for the next two year term.

Section 6.6:

Executive Committee voluntary Vacancies:

In the event a vacancy occurs due to resignation, sickness, or any unforeseen and inevitable reason, he/she should submit their resignation request in writing to the Managing Trustee of the Board. The Board of Trustees will then meet with the current Executive Committee and discuss the options available for the continuation in managing the Samaj.

Available Options:

- A. If the vacancy is in the position of President, then the Executive Committee's Vice President can assume the President's role and continue the management of the samaj until the conclusion of the committee's term.
- B. If the vacancy occurs in the Vice President, Treasurer, or Secretary, the Executive Committee can continue to function as the executive committee and the role of the vacant position can be assumed by one or more members of the executive committee, as long as roles and responsibilities in section 6.9 are followed.
- C. The Executive Committee can make a request for a special election at the next General Body Meeting to fill the vacant executive committee position.

Section 6.7:

Removal due to Non-participation:

Any member of the executive Committee who remains absent for five consecutive Executive committee meetings or BSOGA events without a reasonable cause, and advance notice to all the executive committee members, shall be deemed to have vacated his/her position duty. Such vacancy shall be filled by following the guidelines stated in Article 6 Section 6 for filing a vacancy.

Section 6.8:

Removal through non-confidence Motion:

The general body of the Samaj shall have the option to exercise a vote of no Confidence on any member of the executive committee and thereby terminate his/her tenure of office by two third majority vote of the members present at its Annual or General Body Meeting or at a Special Meeting convened by the Board of Trustees.

Upon removal, such vacancy can be filled by following the procedures outlined in Article 6 Section 6.
